Dear David –

Thank you for your email. Dominion Energy South Carolina, Inc. (“DESC” or “Company”) has developed an electric vehicle charging program, and it intends to seek approval of its program from the Public Service Commission of South Carolina. In an effort to gauge interest in an electric vehicle charging program, the Company has discussed its planned program with various municipalities, and we appreciate the Town of Summerville’s eagerness to express to the Commission its support for DESC’s future electric vehicle charging program. DESC, however, has not yet filed its electric vehicle charging program with the Commission but intends to do so after ORS has had an opportunity to complete its review of the Company’s program. Therefore, the Company does not believe that it is necessary for the Commission to take any action in response to the Town of Summerville’s letter and respectfully requests that the Commission hold the Town’s letter in its administrative files and then place it in the Company’s future docket concerning its electric vehicle charging program.

If you have questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Chad
